GLOBAL
METHODIST CHURCH

Ephesians 4:4

Am I an intentional Christian?

Perhaps you have this question pop into your mind sometimes, as this question may cause an increased focus on how we are living our lives with the profession of Christ being who we follow. As people who claim to follow Christ, we are aware of two realities. Those realities are first and foremost, the faith or belief we choose to place our trust in, and second, balancing the deeds or good works we are called to daily. Recognizing these two realities then leaves us asking in a society that is full of hustle and bustle, how can I be a more intentional Christ-follower?

Might I share a thought and a Scripture toward balancing our faith and deeds, especially as we are gearing up toward minor changes and involvement within the local church and community?

- James 2:14, "What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him?"

Scripture emphasizes that true, saving faith is not just about believing in God, but also about actively living out that belief through love, compassion, and good works. My challenge to you as we head into August, and through the upcoming fall months: Find somewhere to get involved in the life of the church and find a mission outside of the church to help serve.

Blessings to you in the Name of Christ!

Pastor Patrick & Leanne
