Ephesians 4:4

Lyricist of the timeless Christian hymn, "Great is Thy Faithfulness," Thomas Chisholm, wrote the second verse that says, "Summer and winter and springtime and harvest, sun, moon, and stars in their courses above, join with all nature in manifold witness, to Thy great faithfulness, mercy, and love." Chisholm understood that seasons of life will most certainly change but, the mercies and kindness of the Lord are new every morning. The author of the Book of Lamentations writes in 3:22-23 ESV, "The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; His mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is Your faithfulness." Together, we proceed to enter the month of November, and we are very aware that the season is changing not only in God's creation but, the season is changing within the life of the church. We must hold on to those verses in Lamentations, continuing to turn our focus on the Lord's new mercies, continual faithfulness, and of His eternal love and grace (Jeremiah 31:3).

Blessings to you in this season and in the next!
